

Fire-EdUp Prototype Documentation

A prototype is where you construct a physical example of your design.

Activity: Attach photographs of your prototype to this page and, if possible, a link to a video of your prototype in action.

Activity: Outline the steps in the construction of your prototype and describe at least two obstacles encountered in the process.

